

CV – Sharon Weinstein

Sharon M. Weinstein, MS, RN, CRNI, FACW, FAAN, is President, the Global Education Development Institute. Former director of the nursing initiative for the American International Health Alliance, she served as advisor to Central Clinical Hospital, Moscow, Russia from 1993 - 2005. She founded the International Nursing Leadership Institute and the Nursing Initiatives for the new independent states of the former Soviet Union and Central and Eastern European countries. She has advised US healthcare organizations and schools on creating positive practice environments and promoting safety in the workplace. Sharon earned a Master's Degree in health management and gerontology, a bachelor's degree in nursing and behavioral science and is a graduate of the Kellogg Executive Management Program and a Fellow of the American Academy of Nursing. She is the author of 9 books, and co-author of Nursing Without Borders...values, wisdom and success markers. She is a frequent presenter at domestic and international meetings and symposia.